INSTRUCTIONS

How to Use This Workbook

Read this page before starting Module I.

"The matrix rewired you quietly. This workbook rewires you deliberately."

— Sid Morrison Washington

What this workbook is for

You are in the Initiate tier because you are ready to go beyond awareness. You can see the matrix. Now it is time to dismantle what it built inside you — the beliefs, the patterns, the borrowed identity — and replace it with something that is yours.

How to work through it

There are four modules. Work through them in order. Do not rush. Some prompts will feel uncomfortable. That is the work. Discomfort means you have found something real.

What you will need

A pen. Time alone. Honesty. This workbook is not designed to be filled in during stolen moments. Give each module at least 30 minutes of uninterrupted time.

A note on the fill lines

Every blank line is an invitation. Write until the line is full. Then keep writing. The full answer is almost never the first answer.

Returning to this workbook

Do not treat this as a one-time exercise. Return to Module III (The Daily Practice) every 30 days. Return to Module IV (The Legacy Map) every 90 days to update your vision as it grows.

THE MATRIX MIRROR

Identify Your Programming

EXERCISE 1.1

Where Did Your Beliefs Come From?

"You did not choose the matrix. But you can choose to leave it."
Most of what you believe about money, identity, and success was installed without your consent.

List the five beliefs you have held longest about money and success.

Do not judge them. Just write them. Example: "Money is hard to keep." / "Rich people are greedy." / "I am not the business type."

Belief 1: _____

Belief 2: _____

Belief 3: _____

Belief 4: _____

Belief 5: _____

For each belief above, write where you learned it.

Was it a parent? A teacher? Your neighborhood? A failure? A success that went wrong?

SOURCE OF MY BELIEFS

EXERCISE 1.2

The Cost of the Programming

Every belief you hold has a consequence. Name the cost.

Look at the five beliefs from the previous page. For each one, complete this sentence:

"Because I believed _____, I _____."

BELIEF 1 COST ME:

BELIEF 2 COST ME:

BELIEF 3 COST ME:

Which belief has cost you the most? Circle it on the previous page. Then answer:

If I had never believed this, my life would look different in this way:

EXERCISE 1.3

The Mirror Diagnostic

Rate yourself honestly. This is not a judgment — it is a starting point.

Circle or mark your number for each statement. 1 = Not at all true for me. 10 = Completely true for me.

I believe I am worthy of wealth	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	Not at all	Completely
I make financial decisions based on my values, not my	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	Not at all	Completely
I know exactly what I am building and why	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	Not at all	Completely
My daily habits reflect the person I say I want to become	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	Not at all	Completely
I separate my identity from the money I have or do not have	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	Not at all	Completely
I am building something that will outlast me	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	Not at all	Completely
I can hold a vision for more than 90 days without abandoning it	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	Not at all	Completely
I am not competing. I am creating.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	Not at all	Completely

Look at your lowest scores. These are your entry points. What pattern do you see?

MODULE I COMPLETE — You have named the programming. Now you rewire it.

THE MONEY REWIRE

Reprogram Your Financial Identity

EXERCISE 2.1

Your Current Money Story

"The myth money is a money story that keeps you spending and never saving."

You have a money story. Everyone does. Most people have never examined theirs.

Complete the following sentences without thinking too long. Write the first true thing.

When I think about money, I feel...

I deserve to earn...

People like me usually end up...

I am afraid that if I had real money, I would...

The difference between me and wealthy people is...

When money comes in, my first instinct is to...

My biggest financial mistake was...

The story I have been telling myself about money is...

EXERCISE 2.2

Rewriting the Story

Rewiring is not pretending the old story did not exist. It is replacing it with something true and new.

Look at your answers from the previous page. Choose the three most limiting statements.

For each one, write: (a) why it is not actually true, and (b) what the new belief is.

OLD BELIEF 1: _____

WHY IT IS NOT TRUE

NEW BELIEF

OLD BELIEF 2: _____

WHY IT IS NOT TRUE

NEW BELIEF

OLD BELIEF 3: _____

WHY IT IS NOT TRUE

NEW BELIEF

Write your new money identity statement in one sentence:

Example: "I am a builder who attracts, manages, and multiplies resources in alignment with my legacy."

I AM: _____

EXERCISE 2.3

The Five Traps Audit

Which traps are still operating in your life right now?

For each trap, check where you are today and write one action you will take to address it.

Trap 1: Scarcity Tax

Spending more because you fear there will not be enough

☐ This trap is active for me ☐ I have partially escaped this ☐ I am clear of this trap

One action I will take: _____

Trap 2: Dopamine Loop

Buying for the feeling, not for the function or the build

☐ This trap is active for me ☐ I have partially escaped this ☐ I am clear of this trap

One action I will take: _____

Trap 3: Linear Income Ceiling

Trading only time for money with no productized asset

☐ This trap is active for me ☐ I have partially escaped this ☐ I am clear of this trap

One action I will take: _____

Trap 4: Social Gravity

Spending to belong or to signal an identity you are borrowing

☐ This trap is active for me ☐ I have partially escaped this ☐ I am clear of this trap

One action I will take: _____

Trap 5: Compound Void

Not building anything that compounds: no assets, no brand, no legacy

☐ This trap is active for me ☐ I have partially escaped this ☐ I am clear of this trap

One action I will take: _____

THE DAILY PRACTICE

Build Your Alignment Ritual

EXERCISE 3.1

Audit Your Current Day

"Alignment is not a feeling. It is a schedule."
You cannot build a new practice on top of an invisible one. First, see what you are already doing.

Map your typical day below. Be honest — not aspirational.

5:00 AM – 7:00 AM	What do you actually do here?
7:00 AM – 9:00 AM	What do you actually do here?
9:00 AM – 12:00 PM	What do you actually do here?
12:00 PM – 2:00 PM	What do you actually do here?
2:00 PM – 5:00 PM	What do you actually do here?
5:00 PM – 8:00 PM	What do you actually do here?
8:00 PM – 10:00 PM	What do you actually do here?
10:00 PM – Sleep	What do you actually do here?

Looking at this honestly — how many hours per day are moving you toward your legacy?

Hours per day working ON my legacy: _____

EXERCISE 3.2

Design Your Alignment Ritual

This is the practice you will return to every day. Keep it simple. Make it yours.

Morning Ritual (first 30 minutes of your day)

I will wake at: _____

First thing I will do (before phone): _____

What I will read or listen to: _____

My morning declaration or affirmation: _____

Evening Ritual (last 20 minutes before sleep)

What I will review each night (wins, lessons, what I will do tomorrow):

What I will NOT do in the last hour before sleep:

How I will close the day with intention:

The one non-negotiable I will protect every single day:

EXERCISE 3.3

30-Day Alignment Tracker

Return to this page every day for 30 days. Mark each day you complete your ritual.

Check the box each day you complete your morning AND evening ritual. Note what shifted.

Day 1 ☐ Ritual done 	Day 2 ☐ Ritual done 	Day 3 ☐ Ritual done 	Day 4 ☐ Ritual done 	Day 5 ☐ Ritual done 	Day 6 ☐ Ritual done
Day 7 ☐ Ritual done 	Day 8 ☐ Ritual done 	Day 9 ☐ Ritual done 	Day 10 ☐ Ritual done 	Day 11 ☐ Ritual done 	Day 12 ☐ Ritual done
Day 13 ☐ Ritual done 	Day 14 ☐ Ritual done 	Day 15 ☐ Ritual done 	Day 16 ☐ Ritual done 	Day 17 ☐ Ritual done 	Day 18 ☐ Ritual done
Day 19 ☐ Ritual done 	Day 20 ☐ Ritual done 	Day 21 ☐ Ritual done 	Day 22 ☐ Ritual done 	Day 23 ☐ Ritual done 	Day 24 ☐ Ritual done
Day 25 ☐ Ritual done 	Day 26 ☐ Ritual done 	Day 27 ☐ Ritual done 	Day 28 ☐ Ritual done 	Day 29 ☐ Ritual done 	Day 30 ☐ Ritual done

At day 30, reflect: What changed in how you think, feel, and act?

THE LEGACY MAP

Define What You Are Building

EXERCISE 4.1

The 100-Year Vision

"You are not building a business. You are building a civilization."
Most people plan for next month. Legacy builders plan for next century.

— Sid Morrison Washington

In 100 years, what will people say my family name meant?

What institution, asset, or tradition am I building that will exist after I am gone?

Who are the first three people in my family or community who will benefit from what I build?

What does the world look like in my absence — if I build nothing?

EXERCISE 4.2

Your Brand Identity

Your brand is not your logo. It is the story you tell and the promise you keep.

Answer each question in a single, clear sentence.

Who do I serve? (Be specific. Not "everyone." The exact person.)

What problem do I solve that no one else solves the same way?

What do I believe that most people in my industry do not?

What is the transformation I promise? What is life like AFTER working with me?

What is the one thing I am known for — or want to be known for?

What values are non-negotiable in how I do business?

Write your brand positioning statement (one paragraph):

Format: "I help [WHO] achieve [WHAT] by [HOW] so they can [DEEPER WHY]."

EXERCISE 4.3

The 90-Day Exit Map

Every 90 days you should be one step further out of the matrix. Plan your next step now.

Complete this 90-day plan. Be specific. Vague plans produce vague results.

THE ONE THING I am committed to completing in the next 90 days:

THE MATRIX HABIT I am committed to ending in the next 90 days:

THE ASSET I will begin building or acquiring in the next 90 days:

THE RELATIONSHIP I will invest in more deeply in the next 90 days:

At the end of 90 days, I will know I succeeded if:

MY COMMITMENT

I commit to completing this workbook and returning to it in 90 days.

I commit to the practice, the rewire, and the build.

Signature: _____

Date: _____

YOU HAVE COMPLETED THE WORKBOOK. NOW YOU BUILD.

What Comes Next

You named the programming. You rewired the story.
You built the practice. You mapped the legacy.
The work does not stop here. It starts here.

- Return to Module III

Come back to your 30-day tracker every morning. The ritual is the practice.

- Return to Module IV

Revisit your Legacy Map every 90 days. Update it as you grow.

- Go deeper in The Lab

Your Initiate content includes the Sacred Scroll and Millionaire Mnemonics.

- Share with your circle

The matrix is a shared problem. Your exit is a shared opportunity.

"MAAT is the path out of the matrix. Not a metaphor. Not a slogan. A system."
